

So you can find your inner peace. We go beyond.

At Peaceful Soul Retreats, my aim is to make sure your retreat is an unforgettable and enriching experience, from the moment we start planning to the time you return home. I take care of all the details so you can focus on what truly matters: unwinding, reconnecting, and making the most of your time away.

One of the best parts about working with me is the personalised service I offer. I take the time to get to know you, your preferences, and your retreat goals so that I can create something unique and tailored just for you. Whether you're after a wellness escape, a romantic getaway, or a fun group experience, I'll craft a plan that's the perfect fit. As part of the Travel Counsellors network I have access to exclusive deals and insider knowledge, but as an independent agent, I have the flexibility and work hard to find the best deals that work for you, ensuring your retreat exceeds your expectations while staying within your budget.

Planning a retreat might feel overwhelming, but I'm here to make it as easy as possible. Once I know what you're looking for, I'll present you with a few options that align with your desires. Once you've decided, I'll take care of everything—booking your flights, accommodation, and organising personalised activities so you can simply relax and look forward to your getaway.

I'm also here to support you every step of the way. If anything unexpected pops up during your trip, I'm just a phone call away. With 24/7 support, I'll handle the logistics while you focus on enjoying your time away.

With Travel Counsellors' financial protection, you can rest easy knowing your retreat is completely secure. Your investment is protected, and should anything go wrong, I'll be there to help you. From curating your itinerary to finding hidden gems and offering proactive support, I'm dedicated to making sure your retreat is everything you've dreamed of—and more.
